Mr. Dilip J Thakkar (DIN 00007339) was appointed as an Additional Director of the Company with effect from 14th November, 2014. As per the provisions of Section 161 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with Article 147 of the Articles of Association of the Company, Mr. Dilip J Thakkar continues to hold office as a Director until the conclusion of the ensuing Annual General Meeting.

A brief profile of Mr. Dilip J Thakkar, the nature of his expertise, the names of companies in which he holds directorships along with the details of membership / chairmanship on various committee of the Board of other companies, shareholding in the company and relationship between the directors inter-se is annexed to this notice.

The Company has received an intimation from Mr. Dilip J Thakkar to the effect that he is not disqualified from being appointed as a Director in terms of Section 164(2) of the Companies Act and has given his consent to act as a Director of the Company. The Board considers that the appointment of Mr. Dilip J Thakkar as a Director of the Company shall benefit the Company immensely. Accordingly, the Board recommends the appointment of Mr. Dilip J Thakkar as a Director of the Company, whose period of office is liable to determination by retirement of director by rotation for approval of the Members of the Company.

Except Mr. Dilip J Thakkar to whom the resolution relates none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives is concerned or interested financially or otherwise, in the resolution set out at Item No. 5 of the Notice.

Item No. 6 of the Notice

Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar was appointed as Managing Director of the Company for a period of 3 years with effect from 31st March 20015. His re-appointment and remuneration fixed in accordance with schedule V to the Companies Act, 2013 is subject to the approval of the Shareholders for which purpose resolution as set out in the Notice is proposed. Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar fulfills the eligibility criteria set out under Part I of Schedule V to the companies Act, 2013.

A brief profile of Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar, the nature of his expertise, the names of companies in which he holds directorships along with the details of membership / chairmanship on various committee of the Board of other companies, shareholding in the company and relationship between the directors inter-se is annexed to this notice.

The Company has received an intimation from Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar to the effect that he is not disqualified from being appointed as a Director in terms of Section 164(2) of the Companies Act and has given his consent to act as a Director of the Company. The Board considers that the appointment of Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar as a Director of the Company shall benefit the Company immensely. Accordingly, the Board recommends the appointment of Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar as a Managing Director of the Company, whose period of office is liable to determination by retirement of director by rotation for approval of the Members of the Company, the retirement of director by rotation in the AGM of the director shall not constitute break of tenure of appointment as Managing Director.

Except Mr. Rohitashwa Poddar to whom the resolution relates and his relatives (to the extent of their shareholding interest in the Company) none of the Directors and Key Managerial Personnel and their relatives is concerned or interested financially or otherwise, in the resolution set out at Item No. 6 of the Notice.

Item No. 7 of the Notice

With the coming into force of the Companies Act, 2013 ("the Act") several articles of the Articles of Association (AoA) are required to be amended or deleted to bring the same in line with the provisions of the Act. Accordingly, it is considered necessary to substitute the existing AoA by a new set of Articles.

The new set of AoA is given in the annexure to this explanatory statement.

The board of directors recommends passing of the special resolution set out in item no. 7 of the notice.

Item No. 8 of the Notice

Mr. Tarun Kataria (DIN00710096) was appointed as an Additional Directors (Independent Director) of the Company with effect from 12th February 2015. ANNEXURE TO THE EXPLANATORY STATEMENT DRAFT
THE COMPANIES ACT, 2013
COMPANY LIMITED BY SHARES

(Incorporated under the Companies Act, 1956)

PODDAR DEVELOPERS LIMITED

The following regulations comprised in these Articles of Association were adopted pursuant to members' resolution passed at the 33rd Annual General Meeting on 3rd August, 2015 in substitution for, and to the entire exclusion of, the earlier regulations comprised in the extant Articles of Association of the Company.

PRELIMINARY

1. Regulations contained in Table F in the first schedule to the Companies Act, 2013 shall apply to this Company except, in so far as they are not inconsistent with any of the provisions contained in these regulations and except in so far as they are hereinafter expressly or impliedly excluded or modified

INTERPRETATION

2. Unless the context otherwise requires, words or expressions contained in these Articles shall bear the same meaning as in the Act or any statutory modification thereof in force.

"The Act" means the Companies Act, 2013 and includes where the context so admits any re-enactment or statutory modification thereof for the time being in force and where the context requires includes applicable rules thereunder.

"The Article" means these Articles of Association as originally framed or as from time to time altered by Special Resolution.

"The Company" means PODDAR DEVELOPERS LIMITED

"Director" means the Director appointed to the Board of a Company.

"Board" or "Board of Directors", in relation to a Company, means the collective body of the Directors of the Company

"The Managing Director" means the Managing Director for the time being of the Company.

"Whole time Director" means the Whole time Director for the time being of the Company.

"Independent Director" means a Director as defined under section 149(6) of the Act.

"Manager" means Manager for the time being of the Company.

"The Office" means the Registered Office for the time being of the Company.

"Share" means a share in the share capital of the Company and includes stock.

"The Registrar" means the Registrar of Companies having jurisdiction over the area in which the Registered Office of the Company is for the time being situated.

"Month" means a period of 30 days.

"Seal" means the Common Seal of the Company.

"Proxy" includes Attorney duly constituted under a Power of Attorney.

"In writing" and "Written" include printing, lithography and other modes of representing or reproducing words in a visible form.

Words importing persons include corporations, words importing the singular number include where the context admits or requires the plural number and vice versa and words importing the masculine gender shall, where the context admits, include the feminine and neuter gender.

CAPITAL

3. (a) The authorised share capital of the Company shall be such amount as from time to time be authorised by the Memorandum.

- (b) The Company in general meeting may, by ordinary resolution from time to time, increase or reduce the capital for the time being of the Company and divide the shares in the capital into several classes with rights, privileges or conditions as may be determined. The Company may issue preference shares which shall, or at the option of the Company, shall be liable to be redeemed.

4. Save as permitted by Section 67 of the Act, the funds of the Company shall not be employed in the purchase of or lent on the security of the shares of the Company and the Company shall not give directly or indirectly any financial assistance, whether by way of loan, guarantee, provide security or otherwise for the purpose of or in connection with any purchase of or subscription for shares in the Company or any Company of which it may for the time being, be a subsidiary.

5. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the shares shall be under the control of the Board who may allot or otherwise dispose of the same to such persons, on such terms and conditions, at such times, either at par, or at a premium and for cash or such other consideration as the Board thinks fit, provided that option or right to call for any shares shall not be given to any person without the sanction of the Company in General Meeting.

6. The Company, unless prohibited by any provision of law or any order of any court, tribunal or other authority, shall within two months after the allotment of any of its shares or six months in case of allotment of debentures and within one month after the application for registration of transfer of any such shares or debentures, deliver in accordance with the procedure laid down in Section 20 of the Act, upon payment of such fees as prescribed in the Act, the certificate of all shares or debentures allotted or transferred, and the Company shall otherwise comply with the requirement of Section 56 and other applicable provisions, if any, of the Act.

7. Subject to the provisions of these Articles, the Company shall have power to issue preference shares carrying a right to redemption out of profits which would otherwise be available for dividend or out of the proceeds of a fresh issue of shares made for the purpose of such redemption or liable to be redeemed at the option of the Company and the Board may, subject to the provisions of Section 55 of the Act, exercise the power to issue redeemable preference shares.

8. The Company may exercise the power of paying commission conferred by Section 40 of the Act, and in such case shall comply with the requirements of that Section. Such commission may be satisfied by payment in cash or the allotment of fully or partly paid shares or partly in one way and partly in other.

9. The joint holders of a share be severally as well as jointly liable for the payment of all calls due in respect of such share.

10. Shares may be registered in the name of any person, company or other body corporate. Not more than three persons shall be registered as joint holders of any share.

CERTIFICATES

11. Every member shall be entitled free of charge to one certificate for all the shares or several certificates in marketable lots, for all the shares of each class or denomination registered in his name upon payment of such fees as prescribed in the Act. In case of joint-holders, only the person whose name stands first in the register of members as one of the joint-holders of any share shall be entitled to the delivery of certificate, if any, relating to such share.

12. If any certificate of any share or shares be surrendered to the Company for sub-division or consolidation or if any certificate be defaced, torn or old, decrepit, worn out or where cages in the reverse for recording transfers have been duly utilised, then, upon surrender thereof to the Company, a new certificate may be issued in lieu and after cancellation of the old certificate and if any certificate be lost or destroyed, then upon proof thereof to the satisfaction of the Board, and on such indemnity as the Board thinks fit being given a new certificate in lieu thereof shall be given to the party entitled to the shares to which such lost or destroyed certificate shall relate. Where a new certificate has been issued as aforesaid it shall state on the face of it that it is issued in lieu of a share certificate or is a duplicate issued or so replaced and in case of a certificate issued in place of one which has been lost or destroyed the word "duplicate" shall be stamped or punched in bold letters across the face thereof. Every certificate under the Article shall be issued on payment of such fees as prescribed in the Act.

CALLS

13. The Board may, from time to time subject to the terms on which any shares may have been issued and subject to the provisions of Section 49 of the Act, make such call as the Board thinks fit, upon the members in respect of all moneys unpaid on the shares held by them respectively and subject to the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, and each member shall pay the amount of every call so made on him to the persons and at the time and places appointed by the Board. A call may be payable by installments and shall be deemed to have been made when the resolution of the Board authorising such call was passed.
14. No call shall be made payable within one month after the last preceding call was payable. Not less than fourteen days' notice of any call shall be given specifying the time and place of payment and to whom such call shall be paid.
15. (1) If the sum payable in respect of any call or installment be not paid on or before the day appointed for payment thereof, the holders for the time being in respect of the shares for which the call shall have been made or the installment shall be due, shall pay interest for the same at the rate of 12 per cent per annum from the day appointed for the payment thereof to the time of the actual payment or at such rate as the Board may determine.
(2) The Board shall be at liberty to waive payment of any such interest either wholly or in part.
16. If by the terms of issue of any share or otherwise, any amount is made payable upon allotment or at any fixed time or by installments at fixed times, whether on account of the amount of the share or by way of premium, every such amount or installment shall be payable as if it were a call duly made by the Board and, of which due notice had been given and all the provisions herein contained in respect of call shall relate to such amount or installment accordingly.
17. On the trial or hearing of any action or suit brought by the Company against any shareholders or his representatives to recover any debt or money claimed to be due to the Company in respect of his shares, it shall be sufficient to prove that the name of the defendant is or was when the claim arose, on the register of members as a holder or one of the holders of the number of shares in respect of which such claim, is made, and that the amount claimed is not entered as paid in the books of the Company and it shall not be necessary to prove the appointment of the Board who made any call, nor that a quorum was present at the Board meeting at which any call was made nor that the meeting at which any call was made was duly convened or constituted, nor any other matter whatsoever but the proof of the matters aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the debt.
18. The Board may, if it thinks fit, receive from any member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the money due upon the share held by him, beyond sums actually called for and upon the money so paid or satisfied in advance, or so much thereof as from time to time exceeds the amount of the calls then made upon the share in respect of which advance has been made.

The Company may pay interest at such rate to the members as the members, paying such sum as advance, and the Board agree upon. Money so paid in excess of the amount of calls shall not rank for dividends or confer a right to vote or participate in profits. The Board may at any time repay the amount so advanced upon giving to such member not less than three months' notice in writing.

19. A call may be revoked or postponed at the discretion of the Board.

FORFEITURE AND LIEN

20. If any member fails to pay any call or installment of a call on or before the day appointed for payment of the same, the Board may, at any time thereafter during such time as the call or installment remains unpaid serve a notice on such member requiring him to pay the same, together with any interest that may have accrued and all expenses that may have been incurred by the Company by reason of such non-payment.
21. The notice shall name a day (not being less than fourteen days from the date of the notice) and a place or places on and at which such call or installment and such interest and expenses as aforesaid are to be paid. The Notice shall also state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time, and at the place appointed, the shares in respect of which such call was made or installment payable, will be liable to be forfeited.
22. If the requirements of any such notice as aforesaid be not complied with, any shares in respect of which such notice has been given, may, at any time thereafter, before payment of all calls or installment, interest and expenses, due in respect thereof, be forfeited by a resolution of the Board to that effect. Such forfeiture shall include all dividends in respect of the forfeited shares and not actually paid before the forfeiture. The forfeiture of a share shall involve extinction at the time of forfeiture, of all interest in and all claims and demands against the Company, in respect of the share and all other rights incidental to the share.
23. When any share shall have been so forfeited notice of the resolution shall be given to the member in whose name it stood immediately prior to the forfeiture and an entry of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the register of members, but no forfeiture shall be, in any manner invalidated by any commission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
24. Any share so forfeited shall be deemed to be the property of the Company, and the Board may sell, re-allot or otherwise dispose of the same in such manner as it thinks fit.
25. The Board may, at any time before any share so forfeited shall have been sold, re-allotted or disposed of, annul the forfeiture thereof upon such conditions as it thinks fit.
26. A person whose share has been forfeited, shall cease to be a member in respect of the share, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay, to the Company, all calls or installments, interest and expenses, owing upon or in respect of such share at the time of forfeiture, together with interest hereon, from the time of forfeiture until payment, at 12 percent per annum, and the Board may enforce the payment thereof or any part thereof without any deduction or allowance for the value of the shares at the time of forfeiture, but shall not be under any obligation to do so. The liability of such person shall cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the shares.
27. A duly verified declaration in writing that the declarant is a Director, Manager or Secretary of the Company and that certain shares in the Company have been duly forfeited or the Company has exercised its lien on certain shares in the Company on a date stated in the declaration shall be conclusive evidence of the facts therein stated as against all persons claiming to be entitled to the shares and such declaration and the receipt of the Company for the consideration, if any, given for the shares on the sale or disposition thereof shall constitute a good title to such shares and the person to whom any such share is sold shall be registered as the holder of such share and shall not be bound to see to the application of the purchase money, nor shall his title to such share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to such forfeiture, sale or disposition.
28. The Company shall have a first and paramount lien upon every share, not being fully paid-up, registered in the name of each member (whether solely or jointly with others) and upon the proceeds of sale thereof, for moneys called or payable at fixed time in respect to such share, whether the time for the payment thereof shall have actually arrived or not and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing and condition that Article 27 hereof is to have full effect. Such lien shall extend to all dividends payable and bonus declared from time to time in respect of such share. Unless otherwise agreed by the Board, the registration of a transfer of a share shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such share.

29. For the purpose of enforcing such lien the Board may sell the share, subject thereof in such manner as it thinks fit, but no sale shall be made until such time for payment as aforesaid shall have arrived and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators or his legal representatives as the case may be and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of the moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such share, for fourteen days after the date of such notice.
30. The net proceeds of the sale shall be received by the Company and applied in or towards payment of such part of the amount in respect of which the lien exists as is presently payable, and the residue, if any, shall (subject to a like lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the share before the sale) be paid to the person entitled to the share at the date of sale.
31. Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in purported exercise of the power hereinbefore given, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument or transfer of the share sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the register of members in respect of the shares sold and the purchaser shall not be bound to see to the regularity of the proceedings, nor to the application of the purchase money and after his name has been entered in the register of such share, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person, and the remedy of any person aggrieved by the sale shall be in damages only and against the Company exclusively.
32. Where any share, under the powers in that behalf herein contained, is sold by the Board and the certificate in respect thereof has not been delivered to the Company by the former holders of such share, the Board may after cancellation of such certificate, issue new certificates for such share distinguishing it in such manner as it may think fit from the certificate not so delivered.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION

33. No transfer shall be registered unless an instrument of transfer in accordance with Section 56 of the Act, duly stamped and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee has been delivered to the Company together with the certificate or, if no such certificate is in existence, the letter of allotment of the share and the instrument of transfer is in respect of only one class of shares.
34. The provisions of Section 58 and 59 of the Act, regarding powers to refuse registration of transfer and appeal against such refusal, should be adhered to. Provided that registration of transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except when the Company has a lien on the shares. Transfer of shares / debentures in whatever lot shall not be refused.
35. Application for the registration of the transfer of a share may be made by either the transferor or the transferee provided, that where such application is made by the transferor, no registration shall, in the case of a partly paid share, be effected unless the Company gives notice of the application to the transferee in the manner prescribed by Section 56 of the Act and subject to the provisions of these Articles. The Company shall unless objection is made by the transferee within two weeks from the date of receipt of the notice, enter in the register of members the name of the transferee in the same manner and subject to the same conditions.

36. Every instrument of transfer shall be left for registration, accompanied by the certificate of the shares to be transferred or, if no such certificate is in existence, the letter of allotment of the share and such other evidence as the Board may require to prove title of the transferor or his right to transfer the share. Every instrument of transfer, which shall be registered shall be retained by the Company but any instrument of transfer which the Board may refuse to register, shall be returned to the person depositing the same.
37. If the Board refuses to register the transfer or the transmission by operation of law of the right to any shares, the Company shall, within one month from the date on which the instrument of transfer or the intimation of such transmission, as the case may be, was lodged with the Company, send to the transferee and the transferor or to the person giving intimation of such transmission, as the case may be, notice of the refusal. Without prejudice to the foregoing in this Article, the securities or other interest of any member in the Company shall be freely transferable, provided that any contract or arrangement between two or more persons in respect of transfer of securities shall be enforceable as a contract.
38. No fee will be charged for the registration of any transfer, grant of probate, grant of letter of administration, certificate of death or marriage, power of attorney or other instrument.
39. The executor or administrator of a deceased member (not being one of several joint holders) shall be the only person recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such member and in case of death of any one or more of the joint holders of any registered shares the survivor shall be the only person recognised by the Company as having any title to or interest in such share, but nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of deceased joint holder from any liability on the share held by him jointly with any other person. Before recognising any executor or administrator the Board may require him to obtain a grant of probate or letter of administration or succession certificate or other legal representations, as the case may be, from a competent court in India. Provided nevertheless, that in any case where the Board in its absolute discretion thinks fit it shall be lawful for the Board to dispense with the production of probate or of administration or succession certificate or such other legal representation upon such terms as to indemnity or otherwise as the Board, in its absolute discretion, may consider adequate.
40. Any guardian of a lunatic or minor member or any persons becoming entitled to or to transfer a share in consequence of the death or bankruptcy of any member, upon production of such evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he proposes to act under this Article or his title as the Board thinks sufficient, may with the consent of the Board (which the Board shall not be bound to give) be registered as a member in respect of such share, or may, subject to the regulation as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such share. This Article is hereinafter referred to as "The Transmission Article".
41. (1) If the person on becoming entitled under the Transmission Article shall elect to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects.
(2) If the person aforesaid shall elect to transfer the share, he shall testify his election by executing an instrument of transfer of share.
(3) All the limitations, restrictions and provisions of the Articles, relating to the right to transfer of a share shall be applicable to any such notice or transfer as aforesaid as if the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of the member has not occurred and the notice of transfer were signed by the member.
42. A person so becoming entitled under the Transmission Article to a share by reason of the death, lunacy, bankruptcy or insolvency of the holder shall, subject to the provisions of the Act, be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages as he would be entitled to, if he were the registered holder of the share, except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of the share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company:

Provided that the Board may, at any time, by giving notice require any such person, to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the shares, and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other money payable in respect of the shares, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

43. The provisions of the foregoing Articles shall mutatis mutandis apply in respect of debentures (except where the Act otherwise requires) issued by the Company.

DEMATERIALIZATION OF SECURITIES

44. (1) For the purposes of this Article, unless the context otherwise requires, "Beneficial Owner" means a person whose name is recorded as such with a Depository;

"SEBI" means the Securities and Exchange Board of India;

"Depositories Act" means the Depositories Act, 1996, and any statutory modification or re-enactment thereof for the time being in force;

"Depository" means a Depository as defined in the Depositories Act;

"Security" means such security as may be defined by SEBI from time to time.

- (2) Notwithstanding anything contained in these Articles, the Company shall be entitled to dematerialise its securities and to offer securities in a dematerialised form, pursuant to the Depositories Act.

- (3) Every person subscribing to securities offered by the Company shall have the option to receive security certificates or to hold securities with a Depository. Such a person who is the beneficial owner of the securities can at any time opt out of a Depository in respect of any security, in the manner provided by the Depositories Act, and the Company shall in the manner and within the time prescribed, issue to the Beneficial Owner the required certificates of securities.

Where a person opts to hold a security with a Depository, the Company shall intimate the Depository the details of allotment of the security, and on receipt of the information, the Depository shall enter in its record the name of the allottee as the beneficial owner of the security.

- (4) All securities held by a Depository shall be dematerialized and shall be in a fungible form. Nothing contained in Section 89 of the Act shall apply to a Depository in respect of the securities held by it on behalf of the beneficial owners.

- (5) (a) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in the Act or these Articles, a Depository shall be deemed to be the registered owner for the purposes of effecting transfer of ownership of security on behalf of the beneficial owner.
- (b) Save as otherwise provided in (a) above, the Depository as a registered owner of the securities shall not have any voting rights or any other rights in respect of the securities held by it.
- (c) Every person holding shares of any class in the capital of the Company and whose name is entered as beneficial owner in the records of a Depository shall be deemed to be a member of the Company. The beneficial owner shall be entitled to all the rights and benefits and be subject to all the liabilities in respect of his securities which are held by a Depository.

- (6) Nothing contained in Section 56 of the Act or these Articles shall apply to a transfer of securities effected by a transferor and transferee both of whom are entered as beneficial owners in the records of a depository.

- (7) Nothing contained in the Act or these Articles regarding the necessity of having distinctive numbers for securities issued by the Company shall apply to securities held with a Depository.

- (8) The register and index of beneficial owners maintained by a Depository under the Depositories Act, shall be deemed to be the register and index of members and security holders for the purposes of these Articles.

- (9) Notwithstanding anything in the Act or these Articles to the contrary, where securities are held in a Depository, the records of the beneficial ownership may be served by such Depository on the Company by means of electronic mode or by delivery of floppies or discs.

45. Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 39, every holder of securities of the Company shall be entitled to nominate in the prescribed manner, a person to whom his securities shall vest in the event of his death, in accordance with the provisions of the Act.

INCREASE AND REDUCTION OF CAPITAL

46. The Company in general meeting may from time to time increase its capital by the creation of new shares of such amount as may be deemed expedient.

47. Subject to any special rights or privileges for the time being attached to any shares in the capital of the Company then issued, the new shares may be issued upon such terms and conditions, and with such rights and privileges attached thereto as the general meeting resolving upon the creation thereof shall direct, and, if no direction has been given, as the Board shall determine and in particular such shares may be issued with a preferential or qualified right to dividends and in the distribution of assets of the Company.

48. Except so far as otherwise provided by the conditions of issue or by these presents, any capital raised by the creation of new shares shall be considered as a part of the then existing capital of the Company and shall be subject to the provisions herein contained with reference to the payment of dividends, calls and installments, transfer and transmission, forfeiture, lien, surrender and otherwise.

49. The Company may from time to time by special resolution, reduce its capital and any Capital Redemption Reserve Account or Share Premium Account in any manner and with and subject to any incident authorised and consent required by law.

ALTERATION OF CAPITAL

50. Subject to Section 61 of the Act, the Company in general meeting may from time to time:

- (a) Consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into shares of larger amount than its existing shares.
- (b) Sub-divide its existing shares or any of them into shares of smaller amount as fixed by the Memorandum so, however, that in the subdivision the proportion between the amount paid and the amount, if any, unpaid on each reduced share shall be the same as it was in the case of the share from which the reduced share is derived.
- (c) Cancel any shares which at the date of the passing of the resolution have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount of its share capital by the amount of the shares so cancelled.
- (d) Convert all or any of its fully paid up shares into stock and reconvert that stock into fully paid up shares of any denomination.

51. The Board of Directors may from time to time issue and allot shares as sweat equity shares or under Employee Stock Option Scheme / Employee Stock Performance Plan, subject to the limits and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such approvals / consents as may be required under the applicable provisions of the Act and other rules, guidelines, regulations in this behalf and any amendment and modifications thereto, as may be in force. The Board of Directors of the Company are authorized absolutely at their sole discretion to determine the terms and conditions of issue of such shares and modify the same from time to time.
52. Notwithstanding what is stated in Article 4, the Company shall have the power to purchase / buy-back its own shares and / or other securities from time to time, subject to the limits and upon such terms and conditions and subject to such approvals / consents as may be required under the applicable provisions of the Act and other rules, guidelines, regulations in this behalf and any amendment and modifications thereto, as may be in force.
53. In accordance with the applicable provisions of the Act and other rules, guidelines, regulations in this behalf and any amendment and modifications thereto, as may be in force, the Company may issue share capital, equity or otherwise with voting rights or with differential rights as to dividend, voting or otherwise.

MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

54. If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes of shares the rights attached to any class (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may whether or not the Company is being wound up be varied with the consent in writing of the holders of three-fourths of the issued share of that class, or with the sanction of special resolution passed at a separate general meeting of the holders of the shares of that class. To every such separate general meeting the provisions of this Article relating to general meeting shall apply, but so that the necessary quorum shall be two persons at least holding or representing by proxy, one fifth of the issued shares of the class, but so that if at any adjourned meeting of such holder a quorum as above defined is not present, those members who are present shall be a quorum and that any holders of share of the class present in person or by proxy may demand poll and on a poll, he shall have one vote for each share of the class of which he is the holder. This Article is not by implication to curtail the power of modification which the Company would have if these Articles were omitted. The Company shall comply with the provisions of Section 117 of the Act as to forwarding a copy of any such agreement or resolution to the Registrar.

BORROWINGS

55. The Board may from time to time at its discretion subject to the limitation, if any, put by any statute for the time being in force, raise or borrow, and secure the payment or any sum or sums of money for the purposes of the Company.
56. The Board may raise or secure the repayment of such sum or sums in such manner and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as it thinks fit and in particular, by the issue of bonds, perpetual or redeemable debenture or any mortgage, or other security on the undertaking of the whole or any part of the property of the Company (both present and future) including its uncalled capital for the time being.
57. Any debenture, bonds or other securities excluding shares may be issued at a discount, premium or otherwise and with any special privileges, as to redemption, surrender, drawings, allotment of shares, or otherwise. Provided that debentures, debentures-stock, bonds or other securities excluding shares with a right to allotment of, or conversion into shares shall not be issued except with the sanction of the Company in general meeting.

GENERAL MEETINGS

58. Subject to Section 101 of the Act, a general meeting of the Company may be called by giving 21 days' notice in writing.

59. A general meeting may be called after giving shorter notice with the consent of not less than ninety five per cent of the members entitled to vote at the meeting.
60. Subject to the provisions of Section 96 of the Act, the Board shall convene at such times and places as may be determined by the Board, annual general meeting of the shareholders of the Company.
61. The Board may, whenever it thinks fit, call a general meeting and it shall, on the requisition of the members in accordance with Section 100 of the Act, proceed to call on an extra-ordinary general meeting. The requisitionists may in default of the Board convening the same, convene the extra-ordinary general meeting as provided by Section 100 of the Act.
62. No business shall be discussed or transacted at any general meeting except election of Chairperson whilst the chair is vacant.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETING

63. A quorum for a general meeting shall be as provided under Section 103 of the Act at the time when the meeting proceeds to business. A body corporate being a member shall be deemed to be personally present, if it is represented in accordance with the provisions of Section 113 of the Act.
64. If within half an hour from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum be not present, the meeting if convened upon such requisitions as aforesaid, shall be dissolved, but in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the same day in the next week at the same time and place or to such other day and at such time and place as the Board may, by notice, appoint and if at such adjourned meeting a quorum be not present within half an hour from the time appointed for holding the meeting those members who are present and not being less than two, shall be a quorum and may transact the business for which the meeting was called.
65. Any act, or resolution which under the provisions of these Articles or the Act, is permitted or required to be passed by the Company in general meeting, shall be sufficiently so done or passed if effected by an ordinary resolution as defined in Section 114(1) of the Act, unless either the Act or the Articles specifically require such act to be done or resolution passed by a special resolution as defined in Section 114(2) of the Act.
66. The Chairman of the Board shall be entitled to take the chair at every general meeting. If there be no such Chairman or if at any meeting he shall not be present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act, the Vice-Chairman, if any, or in case of two Vice-chairmen, members shall elect one of them to chair the meeting. In case there is no Vice-Chairman or the Vice-Chairman is not present within fifteen minutes after the time appointed for holding such meeting, or is unwilling to act, the members present shall choose another Director as Chairman and if no Director be present or if all the Directors present decline to take the Chair, then the members present shall on a show of hands or on a poll, if properly demanded elect one of the members, being a member entitled to vote, to be Chairman.
67. At any general meeting, a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall, unless a poll is demanded under Section 109 of the Act or the voting is carried out electronically, be decided on a show of hands. The Chairman of the meeting shall have a casting vote.
68. (i) The Chairman of a general meeting may adjourn the same from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
(ii) When a meeting is adjourned for want of quorum the company shall give not less than three days' notice to the members either individually or by publishing an advertisement in the newspapers (one in English and one in vernacular language) which is in circulation at the place where the registered office of the Company is situated.

69. Save as herein provided, on a show of hands, every member present in person and being a holder of equity shares shall have one vote. A proxy shall not have right to vote except on poll. Save as hereinafter provided, on a poll the voting rights of a holder of equity shares shall be as specified in Section 47 of the Act. In case of voting by electronic means, the voting rights of a holder of equity shares shall be as specified in Section 108 of the Act. The holder of preference shares shall not be entitled to vote at general meeting of the Company except as provided for in Section 47 of the Act.
70. Where a body corporate (hereinafter called 'member company') is a member of the Company a person duly appointed by resolution in accordance with the provisions of Section 113 of the Act, to represent such member company at a meeting of the Company shall not by reason of such appointment, be deemed to be proxy and the lodging with the Company at the office or production at the meeting of a copy of such resolution duly signed by one Director of such member company and certified by him as being a true copy of the resolution shall, on production at the meeting, be accepted by the Company as sufficient evidence of the validity of his appointment. Such a person shall be entitled to exercise the same rights and powers, including the right to vote by proxy on behalf of the member company which he represents as that member company could exercise if it were an individual member.
71. Any person entitled under the Transmission Article to transfer any shares may vote at any general meeting in respect thereof in the same manner as if he was the registered holder of such shares. Provided that at least forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting or adjourned meeting as the case may be, at which he proposes to vote, he shall satisfy the Board of his right to transfer such share unless the Board shall have previously admitted his right to vote at such meeting in respect thereof. If any member be a lunatic, idiot or a person of unsound mind he may vote whether on a show of hands or at a poll by his legal representative or other legal curator and such last mentioned person may give the votes by proxy.
72. Where there are joint registered holders of any share any one of such persons whose name stands first in the register of members is entitled to receive notice of general meeting and/or any other documents required to be served on shareholders from time to time and any notice or such document served on or sent to such person shall be deemed service on all the joint-holders.
- Where there are joint registered holders of any share any one of such may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy in respect of such share as if he was solely entitled thereto, and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting either personally or by proxy, then one of the said persons so present whose name stands first on the register in respect of such shares, alone shall be entitled to vote in respect thereof. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose name any share is registered shall for the purpose of this Article be deemed joint holders thereof.
73. (a) Before or on the declaration of the result of the voting on any resolution on a show of hands, a poll may be ordered to be taken by the Chairman of the meeting of his own motion, and shall be ordered to be taken by him on a demand made in that behalf by any member or members present in person or by proxy and holding shares in the Company, which confer a power to vote on the resolution not being less than one tenth of the total voting power in respect of the resolution or on which an aggregate sum of not less than five lakh rupees or such higher amount as may be prescribed has been paid up. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn at any time by a person or persons who made the demand.
- (b) On a poll votes may be given either personally or by proxy, and a person entitled to more than one vote need not cast all his votes in the same way.
74. The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointed or of his Attorney duly authorised in writing or if such appointer is a body corporate under its Common Seal or the hand of its officer or Attorney duly authorised. A proxy who is appointed for a specified meeting shall be called a special proxy. Any other proxy shall be called general proxy. A person may be appointed as a proxy though he is not a member of the Company and every notice convening a meeting of the Company shall state this and that a member entitled to attend and vote at this meeting is entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote instead of him.
75. The instrument appointing a proxy and the power of attorney or other authority (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy of that power or authority shall be deposited at the office not less than forty-eight hours before the time of holding the meeting at which the member named in the instrument of proxy shall vote and in default the instrument of proxy shall not be treated as valid.
76. A vote given in accordance with the terms of instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid notwithstanding the previous death or insanity of the principal or revocation of the instrument or transfer of the share in respect of which the vote is given provided no intimation in writing of the death, insanity, revocation or transfer of the share shall have been received by the Company at the office before the vote is given provided, nevertheless, that the Chairman of any meeting shall be entitled to require such evidence as he may in his discretion, think fit, of the due execution of an instrument of proxy and that the same has not been revoked.
77. No member shall be entitled to exercise any voting rights either personally or by proxy at any meeting of the Company in respect of any share registered in his name on which any calls or other sums presently payable by him have not been paid or in regard to which the Company has, and has exercised any right of lien.
78. Any objection as to the admission or rejection of a vote, either on a show of hands or on a poll, made in due time shall be referred to the Chairman who shall forthwith determine the same, and such determination made in good faith shall be final and conclusive.
- No objection shall be raised to the qualification of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes.
- MINUTES OF GENERAL MEETING
79. (1) The Company shall cause minutes of all proceedings of every general meeting to be kept by making within thirty days of the conclusion of every such meeting concerned, entries thereof in books kept for that purpose with their pages consecutively numbered.
- (2) Each page of every such book shall be initialed or signed and the last page of the record or proceedings of each meeting in such book shall be dated and signed by the Chairman of the same meeting within the aforesaid period of thirty days or in the event of the death or inability of that Chairman within that period, by a Director duly authorized by the Board for the purpose.
- (3) In no case the minutes of proceedings of a meeting shall be attached to any such book as aforesaid by pasting or otherwise.
- (4) The minutes of each meeting shall contain a fair and correct summary of the proceedings thereat.

DIVIDENDS

- 117. Subject to the rights of members entitled to shares (if any) with preferential rights attached thereto, the profits of the Company which shall, from time to time, be determined to be divided in respect of any year or other period shall be applied in the payment of a dividend on the equity shares of the Company but so that partly paid up share shall only entitle the holder with respect thereof to such a proportion of the distribution upon a fully paid up share as the amount paid thereof bears to the nominal amount of shares and so that where capital is paid up in advance of calls such capital shall not rank for dividends or confer a right to participate in profits.
- 118. The Company in general meeting may declare a dividend to be paid to the members according to their rights and interest in the profits and may, subject to the provisions of Section 127 of the Act, fix the time for payment.
- 119. No larger dividend shall be declared than is recommended by the Board, but the Company in general meeting may declare a smaller dividend.
- 120. The Board may, from time to time, pay to the members such interim dividends as appear to the Board to be justified by the profits of the Company.
- 121. The Board may deduct from any dividend payable to any member all sums of money, if any, presently payable by him to the Company, on account of calls or otherwise in relation to the shares of the Company.
- 122. Any general meeting declaring a dividend may make a call on the member of such amount as the meeting fixes but so that the call on each member shall not exceed the dividend and the dividend may be set off against the call.
- 123. No dividend shall be payable except in cash. Provided that nothing in the foregoing shall be deemed to prohibit the capitalisation of profits or reserves of the Company for the purpose of issuing fully paid up bonus shares or paying up any amount for the time being unpaid on the shares held by members of the Company.
- 124. A transfer of shares shall not pass the rights to any dividend declared thereon before the registration of the transfer by the Company.
- 125. Where any instrument of transfer of shares has been delivered to the Company for registration and the transfer of such shares has not been registered by the Company, it shall, transfer the dividend in relation to such shares to the special account referred to in Section 126 of the Act unless the Company is authorised by the registered holder of such shares in writing to pay such dividend to the transferee specified in such instrument of transfer, and keep in the abeyance in relation to such shares any offer of rights shares under clause (a) of sub-section (1) of Section 62 of the Act, and any issue of fully paid-up bonus shares in pursuance of first proviso to sub-section (5) of Section 123 of the Act.
- 126. No dividend shall be paid in respect of any shares except to the registered holder of such share or to his order or to his bankers but nothing contained in this Article shall be deemed to require the bankers of a registered shareholder to make a separate application to the Company for the payment of the dividend.

Nothing in this Article shall be deemed to affect in any manner the operation of Article 123.
- 127. Any one of several persons who are registered as the joint holders of any share may give effectual receipts for all dividend, bonuses and other payments in respect of such shares.
- 128. Notice of any dividend, whether interim or otherwise shall be given to the persons entitled thereto in the manner hereinafter provided.
- 129. Unless otherwise directed in accordance with Section 123 of the Act, any dividend, interest or other moneys payable in cash in respect of a share may be paid through electronic mode, cheque or warrant sent through the post / courier service to the registered address of the holder or in the case of joint holders, to the registered address of one of the joint holders who is the first named in the register of members in respect of the joint holders or to such person and such address as the holder or joint holder, as the case may be, may direct and every cheque or warrant so sent shall be made payable to the order of the person to whom it is sent.

130. No unclaimed or unpaid dividend shall be forfeited by the Board. Unclaimed dividend shall be dealt with in accordance with Section 124 of the Act.

SECRECY

131. Every Key Managerial Personnel or Director of the Company, its member or debenture holder, member of a committee, officer, servant, agent, accountant or other person employed in or about the business of the Company shall, if so required by the Board before entering upon his duties, sign a declaration pledging himself to observe a secrecy respecting all transactions of the Company with its customers and state of accounts with individuals and in matters relating thereto and shall by such declaration pledge himself not to reveal any of the matter which may come to his knowledge in the discharge of his duties except when required so to do by the Board or by any general meeting or by a court of law and except so far as may be necessary in order to comply with any of the provisions in these Articles.
132. No shareholder or other person (not being a Director) shall be entitled to enter upon the property of the Company or to inspect or examine the premises or information respecting any detail of the trading of the Company or any matter which is or may be in the nature of a trade secret, mystery of trade or secret process or of any matter, whatsoever which may relate to the conduct of the business of the Company and which in the opinion of the Board it will be inexpedient in the interest of the Company to communicate.

WINDING UP

133. If the Company shall be wound up and the assets available for distribution among the members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution among the members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, such surplus may be distributed amongst the shareholders of the Company in proportion of their respective shareholding at the commencement of the winding up.
134. If the Company shall be wound up, whether voluntarily or otherwise, the liquidators may, with the sanction of a special resolution divide among the contributories in specie or in kind any part of the assets of the Company and may with the like sanction vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefits of the contributories or any of them, as the liquidators with the like sanction shall think fit.
135. The Company shall prepare and keep at the registered office or at such other place in India, as the Board thinks fit, proper books of account and other relevant books and papers and financial statements for every financial year which give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company in accordance with Section 128 of the Act.

Where the Board decides to keep all or any of the books of account at any place other than the registered office of the Company, the Company shall within seven days of the decision file with the Registrar a notice in writing giving the full address of that other place.

The Company shall preserve in good order the books of account relating to a period of not less than eight years immediately preceding the current year, together with the vouchers relevant to such entries in such books of account.

Where the Company has a branch office, whether in India or outside India, the Company shall be deemed to have complied with this Article, if proper books of account relating to the transaction effected at the branch office are kept at the branch office and proper summarized returns are sent by the branch office to the Company at its office or other place in India, at which the Company's books of account are kept as aforesaid.

The books of account shall give a true and fair view of the state of the affairs of the Company or branch office as the case may be and explain its transactions. The books of account and other papers shall be open to inspection by any Director during business hours.

INDEMNITY

136. Every Key Managerial Personnel, Director or Officer of the Company or any person (whether an officer of the Company or not) employed by the Company and any person appointed as Auditors may be indemnified out of the funds of the Company against all liabilities incurred by him as such Key Managerial Personnel, Director or Officer, employees, or Auditors in defending any proceedings, whether civil or criminal, in which judgment is given in his favour or in which he is acquitted or in connection with any application under Section 463 of the Act, in which relief is granted to him by the Court.
